I have rec^d since the foregoing appraisement was made, from Col. O. Croft, Chas. G. Travillians bond for fifty dollars, given to Ann Michie for the hire of micks payable 1st January 1835, included in the addition on 1st page of this Inventory.

Phil. H. Jones
A. S. for G. W. Perkins & Co.

I do hereby certify and sign the foregoing as an Inventory of the estate of Mrs Ann Michie dec^d but the two yoke of oxen, 58 head of swine 49 head of sheep and 27 head of Cattle as also her furniture not here mentioned all claimed by some of the distributees of Robert Michie dec^d (husband of Mrs Ann Michie dec^d) as part of his estate, being as they contend the increase of the stock lent by his will to his widow for life - Col: Q. Croft on the other hand, in behalf of those to whom Mrs. Michie has bequeathed her stock & furniture alleges all this stock to be part of her estate, and as such, has insisted on having it inventoried. I have done so merely because I found it on the land, and neither the facts nor the law was clear enough for me to decide the title, which must be decided by some competent tribunal.

Phil. H. Jones D.S. for (Y.M. Perkins, &c and Admor. with the will annexed of Ann Michie dec^d.
