The Court on this side of the River has not been able to attend to all his duties as fully and satisfactorily as he desired to have done for two reasons in the first place he was greatly hindered by incessant bad weather and in the next place the Yankee raid drove him out of the County in order to save his books - He left him in the morning and they came into the house the same evening and after he returned it was reported that they were approaching a second time and he had to pack up again - He has seen his list under the circumstances and hopes no alterations will be made - He knows of no other negroes who escaped during the past year from his district a good many escaped from the district bordering on Spotsylvania as will be seen by Capt Quaker's account
