At a Court of Monthly Session, held for the County of Louisa at the Courthouse thereof, on Monday the 14th day of February 1831. The last Will and Testament of William Morris dec^d was proved by the oaths of Nathaniel Perkins and James Watson Jr subscribing witnesses thereto, and is by the Court ordered to be recorded. and two Codicils annexed to said will, was proven by the oaths of Garrit M. Quarles and Pleasant Buckell, who swore that they were well acquainted with the hand writing of the said William Morris, and verily believe that the whole of said Codicils together with the signatures thereto, are wholly written by the own hand of the said William Morris, and thereupon the Court doth order the said Codicils to be recorded as a part of the said will. And on the motion of

John Morris, one of the executors named in the said will, who made oath as the law requires, and together with James M. Morris, Thomas Shelton, James Watson, Joseph W. Morris and Joseph Shelton his securities (who justified on oath as to their sufficiency) entered into and acknowledged a Bond in the penalty of One hundred and fifty thousand dollars, conditioned according to law. Certificate is granted him for obtaining a probat of said will in due form. (Liberty being reserved to the other executors named in the said will to join in the probat when they shall think fit)

In the name of God! Amen!! I David Julloch of Louisa County, State of Virginia, being through the abundant mercy and goodness of God, of a sound and perfect understanding and memory, do constitute this my last will and Testament, and desire that it be received by all as such.

Imprimis. I give my Body to the Earth, from whence it was taken, and my soul to God, in full apuarance of an imortal State after the last day - As for my burial I desire that it be decent without pomp or state at the discretion of my wife - who I doubt not will manage it with all requisite prudence: As to my worldly Estate I will and bequeath it as follows -

Item. It is my will and desire that all my just debts be paid.

Item. It is my will and desire that my wife, have the use and benefit of the whole of my Estate, both real and personal during her life.

Item. It is my wish, and desire, that, after the death of my wife, all of my Estate, both personal and real, except one hundred acres of Land hereafter in this instrument to be mentioned, be sold and so divided amongst all of my children, that each of them shall receive an equal portion of my estate taking into Consideration, what I have given four of my oldest children and what hereafter may be given before the general division of my property.

Item It is my will and desire that, the one hundred acres of Land, excluded in the above item, included by a line running parallel to the line, which separates my son Josephs Land from my tract, remain in the possession of my single daughters, after the death of my wife, as a home for them, so long as they may live unmarried, and after their death or marriage be equally divided amongst all of my children.

Item It is my wish and desire that my youngest son, named David be at liberty, if he pleases, to live with his single sisters after the death of my wife, upon the one hundred acres of Land left as a home for them, until he arrive at the age of twenty one years -

Item I give and bequeath unto my son John M. Julloch the land on which he resides, to have and hold him this heirs forever. Item. I hereby constitute and appoint my sons Joseph J. Julloch, John M. Julloch and Robert B. Julloch Executors of this my last will and Testament.
